Gender and the language we use to talk about it are changing. We must be inclusive to people of all genders.