

NSF Student Travel Grants for ICNMM

We are soliciting applications for NSF funded student travel grants. The grants are open to any undergraduate or graduate student who is an author on an accepted abstract. Along with the technical presentation, students will also have the opportunity to present at our poster session. Travel grant recipients will also be provided unique networking opportunities.

To apply for the travel grant, please send your application to Dr. Amy Betz (arbetz@ksu.edu) by July 15th. Applications must be submitted as a single Word or PDF document. The title of the document should be ICNMM2017_[insert your last name] and the subject line of the email should be ICNMM 2017 Travel Grant Application. Notification of acceptance will be by July 20th. Funds will be received after the conference as reimbursement. Please contact Dr. Amy Betz if you have any questions. The application should include the following table and a 250 words description of how attending ICNMM will benefit your professional development. Women and minorities are strongly encouraged to apply.
